Twenty-eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

If we really believe in something, it does not seem to be a sacrifice to give up everything else to pursue that new dream. Jesus asks the same as any great leader...total dedication; but He promises rewards no one else can promise. "You will have treasure in Heaven, then come, follow Me." Come, follow the call of Christ as a priest, sister, brother or deacon. If you think God is calling you to one of these, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto, 416-968-0997, or email vocations@archtoronto.org. For more information, please visit www.vocationstoronto.ca.

Living the Gospel by supporting frontline workers

Day in and day out, frontline workers have been working tirelessly during the pandemic. While they are there for us, who is there for them?

Catholic Family Services agencies have served countless people who are on the front lines during the pandemic, providing counselling and support. Your gift to ShareLife is helping them cope with the stress and anxiety of being exposed to illness.

October 31 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the special collection or anytime at sharelife.org.

WORLD MISSION MONTH - OCTOBER 2021

Reflection by Father Alexandre Kabera for Oct. 10th

"What must I do to inherit eternal life?" (Mark 10:17) The story of the rich young man in this Sunday's Gospel describes how to become a disciple of Jesus. The question is significant: "What must I do to inherit eternal life?" (Mk 10:17) The Master recognizes that in the young man's eyes, practising the divine commandments is the normal and ordinary way to achieve it. But the Good News suggested by Jesus is a call to go beyond this. It is not enough to be faithful to the commandments of God; it is necessary to follow the very person of the Messiah. The point of the story is not to give up possessions, but to become attached to the person of Jesus Christ. The story of the rich young man is told within Jesus' path towards His Passion. Therefore, following Christ and becoming a Christian, involves a certain austerity.

"It is impossible for us not to speak about what we have seen and heard." (Acts 4:20) We cannot forget about Saint Daniel Comboni, a bishop in whom the sapientia crucis shone intensely through total self-giving and an extraordinary love for the African peoples. He died of cholera precisely on October 10, 1881, in Khartoum at the age of 50. His life demonstrates his total devotion to his missionary vocation. The Church is indebted to him through his Plan for the rebirth of Africa: a profound evangelization of this continent.

Jesus Himself adopted a way of life for His mission: an itinerant ministry, detached as much as possible from the conditions of ordinary life: from having a family and goods. In the present moment, Jesus renews this kind of calling. He says to each one of us: "Come and follow me." We must go beyond the faith of our elders and become disciples of the Lord. It is a surpassing understanding that makes us realize the missionary grace.

May Our Lady of the Missions and Saint Joseph intercede for us.
