REFLECTION FROM THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE FAITH

"For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

(Luke 18:14)

A woman had lost her husband and children; all of them were killed in a country in armed conflict. She found herself alone. She cried all the time and her grief was painful. She felt down. She wasn't receiving any visitors. One day, a little girl knocked on her door. — I lost my parents, she said in tears. I want you to become my mother, she implored. The woman was filled with pity and felt shivers all over her body. Without saying anything, she took the little one in her arms and cried with her. Once again, she found the maternal warmth that had left her a while ago by giving love to this child. The little girl felt fulfilled. They lived together and every time she looked at her, the woman had tears in her eyes and love grew in her heart!

This Sunday's Gospel suggests to us the parable of the Pharisee and the Tax Collector who went up to the temple to pray. Jesus teaches us an unexpected lesson from God's perspective. While he went up to the temple as a public sinner, one of them returns to his house, secretly recognized by God as just. He who went up righteously returns unaware that his righteousness has not been recognized by the Most High. Jesus invites his audience to understand divine behaviour. God declared one of them as righteous; but not the other who asked nothing. God is full of mercy for a sinner who converts himself.

The theme of this Missionary Month is: "You will be my witnesses" (Acts 1:8). One of the essential attitudes to every missionary action is humility. For the mission belongs to Christ. The Holy Spirit inspires in us both the will and work according to his good pleasure. The Holy Pope John Paul II said that if we want to stand in front of humans, we should always kneel in front of the Lord. The seeds of the missionary action take root in a humble and docile heart to God and bears fruit within the missionary apostolate. It is important to be aware of the urgency of bearing witness to our contemporaries. All baptized people are called to be witnesses of Christ and to support the Universal Church in her mission. May Mary, Mother of all missionary disciples, intercede for us.
