Pastor's Reflection

As we reflect on this Sunday's Gospel, let us take time to consider the deep compassion of Our Lord, who looked upon the crowds and was moved with pity for them, for they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Jesus sees the needs of His people, knows their struggles, and desires that all may come to experience His healing, guidance, and love. In this Gospel, Jesus calls and sends His Apostles to proclaim the Kingdom of Heaven, heal the sick, and bring hope to those in need. This mission did not end with them. Through our Baptism, each of us is called to be a witness of Christ in the world, sharing His love through our words, actions, and service to others. The Lord reminds us that we have freely received His gifts and are called to give freely in return. As disciples of Jesus, we are invited to open our hearts to those who are suffering, lonely, or searching for meaning and to be instruments of God's mercy and compassion. May this Gospel inspire us to answer Christ's call with generosity and courage, trusting that He will provide all that we need to carry out His work. May we go forth with joyful hearts, bringing the light of Christ to all whom we encounter.
